

Liberal Studies, Life & Society

Objectives:

1. To enhance students' understanding of themselves, their society, their nation, the human world and the physical environment.
2. To enable students to develop multiple perspectives on perennial and cross disciplinary, contemporary issues in different contexts.
3. To help students become independent thinkers so that they can construct knowledge appropriate to changing personal and social circumstances.
4. To develop in students a range of skills for life-long learning, including critical thinking skills, creativity, problem-solving skills, communication skills and information technology skills.
5. To help students appreciate and respect diversity in cultures and views in a pluralistic society and handle conflicting values.
6. To help students develop positive values and attitude towards life, so that they can become informed and responsible citizens of society, the country and the world.
