

Cheung Chuk Shan College
Terms and Conditions for Hiring Venues for External Users
(Except Alumni Applying for Non-commercial / Non-profit Purpose)

A. External Users Eligible for Making Applications

1. Organizers planning to hold a non-commercial / non-profit activity
e.g. Government departments or public organizations, charitable or non-profit organizations, organizations holding inter-school activities, educational institutions and organizations affiliated to the School
2. Organizers whose nature of business and proposed activity plans deemed appropriate by the School
3. School personnel intending to organize an education-related activity yielding a personal profit

B. Opening Hours of Campus Venues

The venues can generally be hired within the following periods (the time for hiring may be negotiable under special circumstances) on condition that the use will not impede the operation and normal activities of the School:

1. School days: from 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
2. School holidays or Saturdays: from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

C. Procedures to follow

1. Applications should be made at least 2 weeks in advance and will be processed on a first-come-first-served basis (Please refer to the appendix for the charges). The booking form should be submitted to the School in person, by fax (Fax no.: 2512 0429) or by mail / email (public@live.ccsc.edu.hk). An application referred to by a teacher would be considered more favourably and the name of the teacher should be supplied in the application form to facilitate the process of the application.
2. The School will give a formal reply within 1 week upon receiving an application, informing the applicant of the fee to be paid if the application is accepted.
3. The fee should be paid in cash (during the opening hours of the School Office) or by cheque (in favour of “The Incorporated Management Committee of Cheung Chuk Shan College” and post-dated cheques will not be accepted) at least 3 days before the activity is held. Failure to settle the payment as required will render the reservation automatically null and void. A formal receipt will be given to the organizer on the date of the activity.
4. The staff of the organizer should notify the School Office when they arrive and when they leave the school if their use is within the opening hours of the School Office.

D. Rights of School

1. It is wholly the School's discretion to determine whether an application will be accepted.
2. The School may request an organizer to submit documents to prove the nature of its business.
3. The school personnel can enter the venue(s) rented out to check if the organizer keeps the nature and content of the activity as those stated in the application form or complies with the terms and conditions for hiring. If any violation is noticed and cannot be rectified, the School may stop the activity. The organizer will not be entitled to any refund of the fee paid or compensation for the loss arising from the termination of the activity.
4. In the case of any act or activity considered inappropriate or breaching Hong Kong laws, the School has the authority to expel the staff member(s) of the hirer or participant(s) involved from its premises or seek the help of the law enforcement agents if necessary.

E. Cancellation of Booking or Activity

1. Refund of the fee paid will be made only if the hirer makes the booking cancellation at least 3 days before the commencement date of the event.
2. The School can cancel a confirmed booking if:
 - a. the Typhoon Signal No. 8 or above or Black Rainstorm Warning Signal is in force or either of the above is expected to be issued within 4 hours before the commencement of the booking;
 - b. if it is found that the venue(s) would be used for a purpose other than that stated in the approved application; or
 - c. there are other special circumstances that warrant cancellation.The hirer is only entitled to a full refund of the fee paid but cannot claim any loss arising from the cancellation.
3. If the failure to hold the activity as scheduled should be attributed to the negligence of the organizer, the fee paid will be forfeited and the organizer has to make a new payment if it hopes to hold the activity on another date.
4. If an activity is to be suspended due to circumstances that may affect the safety of its staff members or participants, the hirer can request to reschedule it for another date with no change in other booking details free of charge.

F. Responsibilities of Hirer

1. Nature of activity

The hirer has to ensure that the activity to be carried out at the venue(s) is neither illegal or dangerous and does not clash with the interests or policies of the School.

2. Transfer of booking

- a. A confirmed booking cannot be transferred to another date or time unless otherwise approved by the School.
- b. Except with the prior permission of the School, the transfer of the right to use the whole or part of a venue to a third party is forbidden.

3. Preparation and clean-up work

- a. Since holding of public performances in school halls is subject to the licensing regulations currently in force, the hirer should seek prior approval from the relevant government departments administering the licensing regulations. The hirer should also seek advice from the Commissioner of Inland Revenue whether or not entertainment tax is chargeable in respect of any concert or performance for which an admission fee is proposed.
- b. Besides seeking prior approval for delivering materials, objects and equipment to the School, the hirer is not permitted to send inflammable or dangerous items to the School.
- c. The hirer should get the consent of the School for decorating the venue(s) concerned. Also, the hirer is prohibited from making any alterations to the school facilities.
- d. Besides being responsible for setting up the furniture arrangement, the hirer should immediately after the activity restore furniture items used to their original positions, tidy up the venue(s) used and properly dispose of garbage produced.

4. Conduct of activity

- a. The activity organized should not cause disturbance to members of the School, other school activities or residents in the neighbourhood.
- b. Neither the hirer nor the participants of the activity should use any venue other than that / those rented out to them.
- c. The hirer must ensure the number of participants in the activity does not exceed the maximum capacity of the venue(s) concerned.

5. Behavioural codes of staff members of the hirer and participants
 - a. There should be no smoking or consumption of alcoholic beverages.
 - b. Gambling is prohibited.
 - c. With the exception of guide dogs for the blind, no dogs or other pets are allowed in the school premises without the School's approval.
 - d. To prevent the spread of communicable diseases and to maintain public health, they may have to undergo temperature check or health check before entering the school, and admission may be prohibited if such person refuses to undergo the above-mentioned check.
 - e. They should not engage themselves in any act or activity breaching Hong Kong laws.
 - f. Apart from having decent attire, they should keep in mind personal safety and refrain from any dangerous acts.
 - g. The instructions given by the school personnel to ensure personal safety, protect school property and enforce school policies should be followed.

6. Protection of property and lives
 - a. The hirer should take out an adequate insurance policy for the activity against any loss or damage of property and any injury or death of persons while preparing for the activity in the School and during the activity. The School should not be held responsible for any of the aforementioned problems.
 - b. The hirer should arrange for such members of security and first aid personnel, or emergency services to be present during the activity at its own expense having regard to the nature of the event as required by:-
 - i. the Commissioner for Television and Entertainment Licensing;
 - ii. the Commissioner of Police; and
 - iii. any other relevant authorities.

7. Publicity of activity

Unless given the approval of the School, the promotion materials of the activity should not bear the name / logo / photographs of the School.

8. Additional payment
 - a. The hirer has to pay immediately after the activity the total cost incurred if it overruns for more than 15 minutes.

- b. The hirer should pay to the School on demand the cost of reinstating, cleaning or replacing any part of any property or facility of the School, which has been damaged, destroyed, removed or made dirty during the period of use.

9. Accuracy of information supplied

The hirer should ensure the information to be supplied as requested by the School for applying for using a venue is complete and accurate.

G. Inquiries about Applications

Any queries can be directed to Administrative Officer I Mr. Hung at 25706665.
